LEGISLATOR KENNEDY HONORED AT GREAT SOUTH BAY REPUBLICAN SPRING BRUNCH

(Legislator Leslie Kennedy Presenting a proclamation to The Foundation for Sarcoidosis Research)

April 30, 2017 – On Sunday morning in Patchogue the Great South Bay Republican Club hosted their Spring Brunch where they presented a number of honorees. Legislator Kennedy was honored along with Shawn Hymys and Maria Polak. Leslie Kennedy has worked tirelessly for her community, and was humbled by this honor bestowed upon her by the Great South Bay Republican Club.

“Shawn Hymys is a great young man, he is really involved in community groups and he continues to do great things for Suffolk County, and Maria Polak is wonder woman, she is constantly engaged with the community, she is the Commissioner of the Medford Volunteer Ambulance which keeps her occupied in her quest to help people. So I am honored to be named among these two outstanding individuals as honorees of the Great South Bay Republican Club,” said Legislator Kennedy. “I only have the people in my community to thank for this spot of honor, they are the folks that I work for every day, and without them I am nothing.”
